THE

FRIEND.

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME LXI.

PHILADELPHIA:
PRINTED BY WM. H. PILE'S SONS.
1888.

XUM

XUM

INDEX.

Absent-mindedness. Illustrations of, 310.
"Acquaint thyself with God and be at peace." Essay entitled, 3.
Across the Alleghanies. Narration of a recent visit to Ohio, entitled, 339. 346. 355.
Adversity often a blessing, 381.
Affliction. The use and blessings of, 303. 381.
Africa. Superstitions among the natives of South, 219.
African servant. Account of a religious visit of an, 269.
Agent for THE FRIEND. Notice of the appointment of, 320.
Agriculture. Weeds not always a sign of poor farming, 94.
Method of destroying cabbage worms, 190.
On the usefulness of books in the farmer's kitchen, 310.
Alloys. Some interesting characteristics of, 374.
Alexander Edward. Testimony of, to the purposes of the Most High in raising up the Society of Friends to be a people, and the dangers which threaten it, 81.
Allspice. On the growth of, in Jamaica, 70.
Aloes. On the preparation of, 198.
Anarchist trials. Remarks in reference to the recent, 151.
Andre-Walther. Biographical sketch of Lady, 259.
Anecdote of Prince Napoleon, 347.
Angel visit. Extract entitled, An, 173.
Comments on the above, 175.
Animals. Notice of the origin of the society for the prevention of cruelty to, 308.
Apples. On the import of, into British Guiana from the United States, 374.
Apprentices Library. The need of increased accommodations for the, 391.
Arbitration. Notice of the passage of a resolution concerning, by the U. S. Senate, 382. between Costa Rica and Nicaragua. Notice of recent, and comments, 302.
Proposed, between the S. American Republics and the United States, 391.
Proposed, between France and the U. States, 399.
Comments on the above, 399.
Archut Carl. Extract from a pamphlet by, 395. 405. 411.
Arctic regions. On the Eskimo snow-houses of the, 206.
Arctic climate. Notice of the effect of, upon milk, 6.
On the, of midsummer, 129.
Are we helping the poor? 134.
Arsenic. Simple tests for, in wall paper, 286.
Art. On demoralizing, 9.
Arnold Dr. A daily prayer of, 301.
Artesian wells. Notice of the beneficial results of, in Algeria, 166.
Ashton John. The convincement and godly life of, 298.
Ashworth John. Early sufferings of, from poverty, 317.
Athos. Account of a recent visit to, 226.
Australia. Sheep an important commercial product of, 190.
Notice of the religious labors of Jas. Backhouse and Geo. W. Walker in, 267. 274.
Austria. Notice of recent religious engagements in, 302.
Avaricious old man a repulsive sight. An, 310.

Babylonian will. A, dated 512 B. C., 116.
researches. Notice of recent, 324.
Backhouse James. Biographical notice of, 267. 274.
Bales Eleazar. Account of the life and religious character of, 137.
Bank of England. Precautions taken against thieves by the, 311.
Balls. Notice of a protest against, 207.
Comments on the connection between liquor selling and, at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, 318.
Baptism with water of Mary H. Rogers. Notice of, 54. 238.
Baptism. On true, 289.
Baptist Union. Notice of the withdrawal of Spurgeon from, 167.
Barclay Robert. The testimony of, to the light of Christ in the heart, 225.
Barclay's Apology. Notice of a fund for the gratuitous distribution of, 327.
Base-ball playing. Remarks on the frequent demoralizing effects accompanying, 343.
Baxter Richard. Anecdote of, 197.
Be prompt. Advice to children, entitled, 246.
Bee-keeping. On, 94. 262.
Bell Deborah. Testimony of John Bell respecting his wife, 281.
Bergh Henry, the philanthropist. Brief notice of, 308.
Bear valley dam, Cal. Account of the, 294.
Beissel Conrad. Brief notice of, 164.
Bereavement. On the uses of, 43.
Bering's Straits. Account of the discovery of, &c., 378.
Better than Volapuk. Narrative of a conversation by passages in the Holy Scriptures, entitled, 334.
Bible Readings, 186. 245.
Birds. The destruction of certain, made unlawful in Wisconsin, 142.
Certain plume-bearing, nearly exterminated in Florida, 390.
Birthday manual on school divinity. Essay entitled, A, 83.
Blessing of sickness. The, 117.
Boen William, a colored man. Account of the life and religious character of, 77.
Boffin's Bower. Notice of Jennie Collins the queen of, 115.
Bones. On the economic value of, 102.
Books. Encouragement to increase the production and spread of useful, 2.
A snare in reading, when it dissipates religious thoughtfulness, 157.
On the usefulness of, in the farmer's kitchen, 310.
Book notices, &c. In the Himalayas and on the Indian Plains, 9.
Witnesses for Christ, 103.
The Australian Friend, 106. 267.
The Divine Method of Life, 119.
The Progress, an Indian Journal, 159.
Printed Poison. Notice of the translation of, into French, 179.
The Friends' Calendar, 184.
Athos by A. Riley, 226.
The Childrens' Friend and Kindergarten, 239. 255.
Westcott's Social Aspects of Christianity, 253.
Palestine in the time of Christ, by Edmond Stapfer, 268.
Incidents and Reflections, 279.
Report of Friends' Free Library at Germantown, Philadelphia, 287.
The Library Magazine, 295.
Notice of prize essays on sanitary subjects, 295.
Report of the Sanitarium Association of Phila., for 1887, 311.
Report of Friends' Freedmen Association, 319.
A Testimony to the Ancient Simplicity of the Truth, and the narrow way of the cross, 319.
The cruise of the Marchesa, 349.
Pamphlet by Carl Archut, 395. 405. 411.
Secret Societies by Josiah W. Leeds, (new edition), 408.
Boston. Imprisonment of W. F. Davis for preaching on the common of, on the First-day of the week, 54. 247. 294.
Boxing a mark of brutality, 214.
Boy. Touching instance of the devotion of a, to his mother, 101.
Lesson to a, on being too positive, 307.
Noble reply of a, 346.
Boys. On placing responsibility on, 324.
Borneo. Making peace between savage tribes in, 266.
Brazil. Pleasing anecdote of the Emperor of, 327.
Notice of the abolition of slavery in, 341. 415.
Poem upon the recent abolition of slavery in, 412.
Bread day in Normandy, 373.
Brentz Johann, an early Protestant. Biographical notice of, 189.
Bridgeman Laura D. Notice of her in her 59th year, 198.
Brief narrative in relation to the position of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of Friends. A, 233. 241. 249. 257. 265. 273.
Building. Method of testing the foundation for a, 398.
Built upon a rock. Essay entitled, 210.
Bulgaria. Observations of a recent traveller on, 282.
Bunhill Fields burying ground. Notice of, 125.
Burdens on young shoulders. On placing, judiciously, 324.
Business. Advice of George Fox in regard to, 165.
Caution and advice in relation to, 219. 226. 244. 252. 261. 268. 276. 282. 373.
Concern of John Barclay that Friends should not in their, encourage the sale of articles of display, &c., 245.
Remarks on success in, 348.
The principles of Friends lead to the strictest integrity in, 380.

Calcutta. The danger to, from the silting up of the Ganges, 330.
California. Remarks on a recent speculation in land in, 39.
Maple sugar made in, from the broad-leaved maple, 414.
Notice of the emigration of skilled women to, 238.
The great Bear Valley dam in, 294.
Call to the Fountain. Essay entitled, A, 218.
Call upon Me in the day of trouble. Incidents and reflections entitled, 321.
Canaanite outcast. Account entitled, A, 406.
Canada. Notice of the rapid increase of the French element in, 278.
Canning industry. On the extent of the, 142.
Capper Mary. Remarks of, on the soul-satisfying doctrines of the early Friends, 171.
On the mournful indifference of many religious professors, 402.
Capital punishment. Notice of the abolition of, in Italy, 407.
Card playing. On the danger of, 187.
Caterpillar. An intelligent, 44.
Caton William. On the source of the ministry of, and comments, 279.
Celebes. Observations of a naturalist in, 394.
Celluloid used as sheathing for ships, 302.
Cement for chinaware, 150.
Centrifugal force withstood, 198.
Chalkley Thomas. Concern of, that his children should be educated as Friends, 251.
Character determines our enjoyments, 172.
Charitable purposes. Illustration of the amount which might be given for, 116. organizations. On the work and value of, 263.
Charity. On the exercise of true, in judging of others, 196.
Chewing-gum. On the source of, &c., 70.
Child. A lesson learned by the suffering of a, 66.
Illustration of the training of a, to observe closely, 82.
On the danger of wounding the tender heart of a, 148.
Touching story of a, in a children's hospital, 252.
The sensitiveness of a, requires great consideration, 390.
Children. On the necessity of teaching, obedience, 13.
On the destitute, of London, 68. 75. 79.
Obedient, make a happy home to pious parents, 85.
The place of, in classical heathen thought, 227.
The tender regard of the Saviour for, 227.
The proper training of, 251.
The example of parents in telling untruths to, 405.
Illustration of the evil effects of severity in trivial matters upon, 410.
Childhood. The trust of, 358.
China. Evidences of progress in, 22.
On grotesque forms of vegetation produced by gardeners in, 29.
Notice of the publication of a medical journal in, 39.
The singing of larks in temples in, 46.

China furnishes a lesson to the Congress of the United States, 127.
Method of treating babies in, 261.
Account of the inundation of the Hoang Ho in, in 1887, 397.
Chinese. The objections of a, to Christianity, 62. 87. living in Philadelphia. Remonstrance of, against unjust treatment, 31.
Notice of the New York mission for the, 103.
babies. An orphanage for, under the care of Roman Catholics in Ningpo, 93.
On silk culture by the, 126.
Inhuman treatment of the, at Los Angeles, Cal., 271.
A parade of, in San Francisco in honor of an idol, 103.
Notice of despotic trade-unions in, 278.
On the large consumption of water-melon seeds by the, 407.
Christ in his inward and outward revelation, 4. 215. 225. 233. 291.
The light of, in every man, a sufficient guide to salvation, 27. 247. 291.
Testimony of Friends to the divinity and offices of, 37. 215. 220.
The doctrine of the light of, the object of the assaults of Satan, 81. 247.
Abide in, the living Vine, 162.
The doctrine of the light of, fundamental, 218. 247. 385.
The united testimony of the early Friends to the Light of, in the heart, as the great agent of man's conversion to God, 225. 247. 381. 385.
Testimony of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting to the Light of, in the heart, 233.
Remarks on the second and spiritual coming of, 271.
the Word of God, 289.
the Way, 363.
On the operation of the Light of, in the heart, 411.
Christ convicts, cleanses, clothes, crowns, 250.
Christian. On the beauty of the life of a true, 84.
A professed, loses influence by laxity rather than strictness in social life, 100.
The blessing to a, of believing what he professes, 125.
The duty of a, to be where his Master would have him, 132.
life. The greatness of a, lies in serving, 141.
life. Remarks of William Penn on true, 236.
Christians. True, not to be exempt from suffering, 316.
The need of grace among professed, 334.
A lesson of earnestness to be learned by, from the politicians, 406.
Christianity. The full power of, never yet been tried but by a comparatively few, 361.
Christmas. The common method of observing the day called, a cause of concern, 227.
"Church." The term, applied to a building incorrect and misleading, 289.
Church. On the need of greater purity and faithfulness in the visible, 101.
The need of constant waiting for Divine wisdom to act with propriety in the, 218.
On worldliness in the, 277.
A strong, 287.
The place of women in the, 308.
The, must be composed of pure members, 378.
Church army." Notice of "The, 214.
Cicada. Account of the appearance of the 17 year, in E. Iowa, 412.
Cigarette smoking. The extent and dangers of, 156.
Cities. The perils of great, 403.
Citizenship in heaven. On, 165.
Civilization not to be effected without Christianity, 15.
Cleaning the corners. Remarks on character entitled, 277.
Climate. On the adaptation of man to, 294.
Cleaning Caffer milk-baskets, 222.
Coal regions of Pennsylvania. Description of a section of the, 338.
Color-blindness. An examination with reference to, 350.
College students. Notice of a building erected by, 214.
Collins Jennie. Account of the self-denying labors of, 115.
Colored race. No conflict to be apprehended with the, in the United States, if Christianity prevails, 407.
Comstock Anthony. Account of the labors of, 362.
Company. Evil, even of relations, to be avoided by the young, 169.
Poor, worse than none, 177.
Conflicts of feeling. Extract upon, 131.
Conformity to the world. Essay entitled, 275.
Congregationalists. Statistics of contributions of, for missionary societies, 127.
Conversion. Anecdotes of instrumental means used in the, of sinners, 121.
Incidents and reflections connected with, 129.
Conviction. The power of, 316.
Cotton. Notice of the burning of, from the spontaneous combustion of the oil of the seed of, 134.
On the use of the oil of the seed of, in adulterating lard, 222.
Council Bluffs, Neb. Notice of, 234.
Counterfeiters of coin in America. Account entitled, The first, 413.
Courage of a woman, 205.
Crime. The late increase of, believed to be due to the growth of materialism, 205.
Criminals. Remarks on preventing boys from becoming, 13.
Crisp Stephen. Warning of, to Friends in relation to their business engagements, 261.
Cross. Stand by the, 186.
Cross of Christ. On the necessity of bearing the, for our spiritual growth, 187.
Cruise of the Marchesa. Account of the, 349. 354. 364. 370. 378. 387. 394. 402.

Danube. Observations of a recent traveller along the lower, 276. 282.
D'Aubigné. Account of a social interview with, by J. Hodgkin, 171.
Deafness of an engineer lessened while on a moving engine, 278.
Death. A Christian's view of, 126.
Death-bed repentance. Remarks on, 243. 269.
Deaths. Remarks on judging respecting happy, 269.
Deaths.—Cornelia Mary Atwater, 64; Martha H. Allen, 80; Rebecca Ashead, 176; Samuel Alsop, 392; Samuel Alsop, Jr., 392; Emelia S. Boyd, 32; Lucinda Battey, 48; Maggie A. Barker, 176; Ahira Baldwin, 184; Catharine M. Brown, 208; Richard Beeson, 272; Johnson Brewer, 296; Anna Warrington Bailey, 408; Phebe H. Cox, 8; William L. Copeland, 24; James W. Copeland, 24; Jeremiah Comfort, 24; Martha Sybil Carter, 56; Ruth C. Cowperthwaite, 64; James A. Cope, 88; Charles A. Clement, 176; Laura A. Carter, 192; Sarah Ann Chapman, 216; Edith DeCou Comfort, 216; Mary S. Cope, 232; Asenath A. Cooper, 248; Lydia Coulson, 296; Joseph B. Cooper, 304; Deborah W. Cooper, 344; Ira Carter, 368; Sarah Ann Cope, 384; Sarah Ann Comfort, 408; Mary W. Dixon, 216; Edith S. Darnell, 360; Mary L. Evans, 8; Abigail Eldridge, 64; Mary Elliott, 112; Edmond K. Edwards, 200; Henry Ecroyd, 296; Thomas Emmons, 384; Joseph C. French, 96; Samuel Fawcett, 384; Elizabeth W. Fawcett, 416; Homer Gibbons, 120; Lydia Gibbons, 120; Penina Gibbons, 216; Lucinda Gibbons, 272; Julianna W. Hutton, 112; Ephraim W. Holloway, 120; Mahala Harvey, 128; Humphrey S. Haight, 240; Anna T. Hancock, 248; Clayton Hancock, 248; Harriet Hancock, 248; Alice Haverstick, 272; Susanna Hadley, 272; Israel Heald, 280; Stephen Hobson, 288; Sarah Hodgin, 320; Mary W. Hazard, 384; Ann L. Jones, 185; Joel Kirk, 240; Jemima Knowles, 240; Beulah Leeds, 128; Samuel F. Levis, 160; Sarah Ann Leeds, 272; Elizabeth E. Lippincott, 272; Edward Livezey, 280; Benjamin Mather, 24; Sarah C. Michener, 24; Gershom Mott, 56; Wilmer J. Moore, 160; John B. Middleton, 208; Elizabeth Moyer, 232; Joseph Masters, 264; Mary Emily Moffitt, 328; Hannah I. Malone, 400; Mary Ann Newlin, 368; Jesse Osborn, 240; William H. Pennell, 112; Mary H. Pennell, 112; Benjamin H. Pitfield, 176; Rebecca Painter, 192; Phebe Phillips, 208; Isaac Pickering, 216; Rebecca S. Pierpoint, 232; Armelia Pickering, 304; Sarah C. Passmore, 304; Mary Melissa Price, 352; Rhoda Parkins, 360; Lewis Palmer, 408; Mary Redman, 128; Edward B. Richie, 144; Kersey Reiter, 208; Mary Russell, 224; Sarah A. Richie, 280; Mary W. Romon, 368; Aaron Roberts, 368; Elizabeth E. Scott, 56; Sally Ann Symonds, 96; Alice R. Stokes, 104; Mary A. Shove, 112; Christiana Smith, 120; Ann D. Sinnickson, 288; Amy Sharpless, 304; Ellen P. Sharpless, 320; Job Smith, 416; Edward Simkin, 244; Ephriam W. South, M. D., 352; George B. Taylor, 48; George Thomas, M. D., 96; Margaret J. Tollinger, 128; Louis Taber, 184; Mary G. Tripp, 256; Mary R. Talbut, 280; Ann Thomas, 320; William R. Wills, 32; Amos E. Whitson, 48; Dr. Ephraim Williams, 64; Henry Wood, 80; Mary Jane Whiteley, 88; Elizabeth Wood, 104; Alice Wilbur, 136; Sarah A. Willits, 176; Phebe Ann Whitson, 176; Elizabeth G. Winder, 216; Nathan Warrington, 216; Eliza Pennell Webster, 248; John Warner, 280; David Whinery, 328; Phebe Whinery, 328; Annie L. Walton, 352; Ann C. Wildman, 408; Frederick Wood, 400; Sarah Yarnall, 40.
Debt. Advice concerning running into, and upon paying it off, 229.
Debts. On money, and other, 332.
Deer induced by hunger to visit a farmer's barn, 302.
Dewsbury William. An epistle of, to the afflicted and wounded in spirit, 53.
Demoralizing literature and art. Protest of Pressensé against, to the Senate of France, and comments, 179. representations in Philadelphia. Remarks on, 207. 254.
Diamond. Notice of a, that could not be polished, 366.
Notice of a, found near Atlanta, Ga., 414.
Disputes. Incidents and reflections concerning, 99.
Disinfectant. Notice of a new, 134.
Divine guidance. Incidents in the life of Stephen Grellet illustrating, 305. 313. 385.
Divine protection. Incidents illustrating, 300. 329. 385.
Divine support in danger, 385.
Dix Dorothea L. Brief notice of the life and labors of, 21.
Doctrines of Truth only to be discerned in the absence of prejudice, 388.
Dog. Services of a St. Bernard, in rescuing travellers lost in the snow, 262.
Remarkable account of a brave, 406.
Dollar. On the origin of the word, 206.
Donation. A liberal, 103.
Dreaming. An intricate problem solved in, 38.
Dreams and visions. Divine help extended through, 108.
Dress. Notice of reform in the, of women by the "Rational Dress Society" in England, 86.
Remarks of Henry Hull on the wisdom of the testimony of Friends to a plain, 188.
Advice of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting in relation to plainness of, 243. 277.
On conformity to the world in, 275. 367.
Enforcement of rules in the church, as well as preaching against pride in, necessary, 367.
Drowning. Precautions to be observed to prevent, 149.
Dunkards. Notice of cautions by a recent conference of, to their members, 375.
Duty. Remarks on what is, 125.
Dudley Mary. Remarks on the call of, to the ministry, 386.
Dwarfs. Notice of a race of, in the Eastern Pyrenees, 86.
Dynamite. The precautions necessary in handling, &c., 374.

Early winter walk. An, 162.
Early rising. Remarks on the advantages of, 365.
Earthquake. Notice of results of the recent Sonora, 318.
Economy. Illustration of mistaken, 126.
Editorial.—Remarks on an effort to suppress certain indecent exhibitions, 7; Observations on the false doctrine of apostolical succession as taught in the Church of England, 7; Observations on commencing a new volume, 7; Comments on a minute of New York Yearly Meeting sanctioning innovations, 15; On the Anti-Christian character of war and teaching young children in First-day schools erroneous views in regard to war, 23; Remarks on a remonstrance of Chinese living in Philadelphia against unjust treatment, 31; Remarks on communications received concerning the recently published diary of Abigail W. Hall, 31; Remarks on speculation in land in California and its probable results, 39; On the proposed Conference of Yearly Meetings, 47; Comments on the action of New York Yearly Meeting in propounding a series of doctrinal questions to ministers, 55; Remarks on the attendance of the Richmond Conference by members of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 55; Remarks on an article by Adam Spencer on the position of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 55; Observations on an article by Wong Chin Foo, a Chinese, stating his objections to Christianity, 62. 87; Remarks on the recent preparation by the Meeting for Sufferings of an address to our fellow citizens on the subject of war, 71. 103; Notice of the proceedings of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 79; Remarks on the necessity and justice of certain laws restricting personal liberty, 87; Comments on the obstacles to the reception of Christianity by the heathen arising from the action of so called Christian nations, 87; Notice of the sale of the library of the late Dr. Chas. Evans, 88; Remarks on the late conference of Yearly Meetings at Richmond, Indiana, 95. 111. 183. 192; Notice of "Witnesses for Christ" by Edward Backhouse and Charles Tylor, 103; On incorrect teaching respecting justification and sanctification, 119; Notice of "The Divine Method of Life," 119; On the policy as well as blessedness of pursuing a right course of action in national affairs, 128; Remarks on creaturely excitement in religion, 135; On causes of the decrease in numbers of the Society of Friends in certain places, 143; Remarks on anarchy and the need of law, 151; Remarks on the course of The Friend's Review toward Ohio Yearly Meeting, &c., 151. 175; On the institution of the discipline among Friends, 160; Remarks on the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in reference to prohibition, 167; On the demoralizing character of a recent intercollegiate game of football, 167; On the right improvement of every portion of our time as in the Divine sight, 175; On the reflections appropriate to the close of the year, 175; Remarks on a circular of the meeting for oversight in Dublin respecting Friends removing to that city, 176; Notice of "The Friend's Calendar," 184; Considerations on the work of some professed "Evangelists," 191; On the concern of early Friends to refute all the false charges published against them, 199; Remarks on the Social Purity Alliance of Philadelphia, and its objects, 207; On the importance of the leading members of a meeting keeping in humility and meekness, 207; On the nature of true faith and on the character of the ministry of the early Friends, 215; Comments on a remark of a clergyman recommending the theatre, 215; Remarks on the doctrine of Friends that true faith includes obedience, 224; On the defection from the principles of Friends involved in the home missionary movement, 231. 336; Notice of a paid ministry supported by professedly a Friends' meeting in Pasadena, Cal., and comments, 239; Notice of The Children's Friend and Kindergarten, 239. 255; The inward manifestation of the spirit in the heart the true guide in religion, 247. 255; On placing an undue dependence on a knowledge of the Holy Scriptures, 255; Comments on the present situation and prospects of Europe, 264; Remarks on the second coming of Christ and the resurrection of the body, and care of Friends to avoid speculation on such subjects, 271; On the nature of true ministry, and the need of upholding the views of Friends in regard to it, at the present time, 279; Notice of Incidents and Reflections, 279; On the happy religious experience of David Sands on the approach of death, 287; Remarks on the approach of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 295; Notice of The Library Magazine, 295; Notice of prize essays on sanitary subjects, 295; Notice of the need of financial aid by the Freedmen's Association and Indian Aid Association, 295; Notice of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 303. 311; Comments on the concern of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting for its members, 319; Notice of "A Testimony to the Ancient Simplicity of the Truth, and the Narrow Way of the Cross," 319; Remarks on the immorality almost inseparable from war, 327; Observations on the loss of influence by Friends in departing from their ancient principles, 328; Notice of a difficulty from which Friends are free by their testimony to a free gospel ministry, 335; Remarks on the frequent demoralizing effects accompanying base ball playing, &c., 343; Notice of a letter written by a former Free Methodist preacher, and comments, 351; Comments on an article in The Friends' Review on the "Movement of Re-animation," 359; Comments on the recommendation of arbitration for settling international disputes in a recent Methodist conference, 367; Comments on departures from the principles of Friends in the recent Yearly Meeting of New York, 368; Remarks on a public meeting recently appointed by Friends, held at Haddonfield, N. J., 375; Comments on a statement respecting the signers of an address to Wm. E. Gladstone on Home Rule in Ireland, 376; Notice of proceedings of London Yearly Meeting, 383; Comments on the principles of Friends in holding meetings for worship without pre-arranged services, 391; On the social causes affecting the number of members among Friends, 399; Evidences of departures from the principles of Friends in the West, and comments, 407; Notice of a new edition of "Secret Societies," by Josiah W. Leeds, 408; Remarks on the experience of an Armenian embracing the views of Friends, 415; Remarks on the close of the 61st volume, 415.

Egypt. Proposed restoration of Lake Moeris in, 262.

Electricity. Notice of an explosion of benzine, supposed to be caused by, 6.
On the welding of metals by, 153.
Effects of, upon sewage, 246.
Form of sunstroke from, 262.
developed in certain printing presses, 286.

Electric light attracting insects, 110.
The dangers from the, in cities, illustrated, 222.
The preparation of carbon rods for the, 230.
On the manufacture of lamps for the, 355.

Elevation of thought. On, 2

Enemies. The way to have dominion over, 100.

Entertaining visitors. Remarks on true enjoyment in, 341.

England. Notice of a movement in the House of Commons towards arbitration, 7.
The effects of war in deadening the national conscience in, 254.

England, Church of. Notice of dissatisfaction among Nestorians, with doctrine of, 7.
On the false doctrine of the apostolical succession held by the, 7.
On the tendency in the, toward Catholicism, 62.
Remarks on the unwisdom of, in exacting tithes, 143.
On the condition of the, in Great Britain, 167.
On the sanction given by the thirty-seventh article of, to war, 327.
On the sanction given by the thirty-ninth article of, to swearing, 327.
The ground of non-conformity with the, in England, stated, 351.

Enjoyment. On the test and measure of 172.

Ephrata community. Brief notice of the, 164.

Episcopalians. Sentiments of certain, towards other Protestants, 246.
Separation of the white from the colored members of, in South Carolina, 351.
Sentiments of a Presbyterian respecting the need of reforms among, 383.

Evangelical alliance. Notice of proceedings of a conference lately held under the auspices of the, 183.

Evans William. Remarks of, on the state and safety of the church, 339.
Remarks by, of a trial of his faith, 409.

Evil Spirit. Caution against false doctrine in reference to the, 228.

Eye. A cheat in reference to the, exposed, 78.
Methods of removing a cinder from the, 334.

Faith. On the prevalence of a merely intellectual and false, 61.
On exercising, under discouragements, 181.
On the doctrine of Friends, in regard to, 215. 223.
Trials of the, 409.

Faithful to the Lord, and subject one unto another. Essay entitled, 93.

Faithful to his word. Account of George C. Lake, entitled, 406.

Famine in Persia. Notice of a present, 239.

Fanaticism. Notice of a strange, 7.

False and the true. Essay entitled, The, 323.

Feeble minded persons. Notice of extraordinary powers often seen in, 6.

Few words to whom it may concern. A, 372.

Finding signs when we want them. On, 190.

Fire. On the occurrence of, from nitric acid, 135.
Various causes of, 253.
Notice of a, caused by a monkey, 278.
caused by rats, 318.

First day of the week. Notice of efforts at Hammonton to promote the observance of the, 15.
Legal decision in regard to the observance of the, 30.
On the necessity for and justice of laws for the observance of, 87.
The publication of newspapers on the, a powerful agent in secularizing it, 143.
Notice of the loss of, as a day of rest where places of amusement are open on the, 214.
The managers of the Cincinnati centennial celebration decline opening it on the, 263.
Notice of the frequent holding of meetings of a secular character on the, and its demoralizing effects, 279.
The spending of the afternoon of, in unprofitable visiting, &c., an incalculable injury to the young, 310.
Legal decision respecting camp-meeting fees on the, 311.
Proposed movement among Methodists to resist the secularizing of the, 359.
Hypocritical pretensions upon the observance of the, 412.

Fish. Account of the killing of a man by a Sword-, 14.
Notice of a patent for preserving, alive, 190.

Fishes. On the manner in which, live in winter, 318.
On the transportation of live, 366.

Florida. Account of a visit to, 410.

Flowers. On the cultivation of, in France for perfumes, 414.

Fluorine. Some of the properties of, 374.

Fox Maria. Extracts from, 113. 124. 158. 163. 171. 181. 186. 203.
Letter of, to a young person under religious impressions, 139.

Fox George. Epistle of, 146.
Account of a sermon preached by, in Barbadoes, 153.
Exhortation of, to keep to meekness and humility, 207.
Epistle of, to Friends, 221.
The emancipation of slaves advocated by, 153.
On the institution of the discipline by, 160.
Advice of, to forgiveness, 196.
The testimony of, to the light of Christ in the heart, 225. 290. 385.
Advice of, concerning trade and business, 226.
Comments on the central principle of the religion inculcated by, 253.
Advice of, to Friends on transacting the affairs of the church, 259.
Exhortations of, to Friends, 122. 265. 276. 316. 399.
Declarations of, respecting the gospel, 331.
Remarks of, on the right of the saints to judge in spiritual matters, 355.
Three weighty statements of religious truths by, 394.
Remarks of, on a trial of his faith, 409.

Food. Notice of parasites in, 190.
Poisonous herbs used as, after cooking, 198.
The eggs of white ants used as, in South Africa, 270.

Forgetfulness. Instance of sudden, 382.

France. Disestablishment approved of in, 15.
Remarks on the revolution in, and on Napoleon's career, 20.
Notice of Protestants in, 111. 223.
Notes of recent observations on the people of, &c., 163. 314.

Freedmen. Notice of Scotia Seminary, N. C., for, 46.
On injustice to the, in the Southern States, 86. 175. 355.
Notice of the John T. Slater fund for aiding the, 238.
On the improved condition of the, in the cotton growing states, 287.
Notice of proceedings of Friends' Association for the relief of the, 319.
Notice of injustice in the Legislature of Georgia towards the, 335.
The color line drawn by Episcopalians in South Carolina, 351.
Incident illustrating the feeling against the, by certain classes in the Southern States, 404.

Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 2, 3. 28. 42. 53. 59. 69. 98. 107. 115. 165. 179, 180. 187. 197. 202, 203. 210. 212. 218. 220. 235. 238. 250. 258. 275. 291. 306. 323. 330. 338, 339. 354, 355. 356. 363. 371, 372. 388. 403.
Testimony of Francis Howgill respecting the Society of, 82.
On the state of the Society of, 2. 15. 18. 124. 183. 187. 202, 203. 210. 212. 231. 233. 235. 239. 247. 259. 275. 279. 283. 355. 359. 366. 371. 391. 403. 407.
The light of Christ revealed in the heart, the fundamental doctrine of, 218. 225. 233.
An epistle of George Fox to, 221.
Advice of Ohio Yearly Meeting of, to its members in 1823, 66.
On the doctrine of, respecting justification and sanctification, 119.
Encouragement to, to persevere, notwithstanding our peculiar trials, 124.
On the importance of maintaining the testimony of, to the plain language, 131. 243. 298.
Remarks of George Withy on the character of the worship and discipline of, 139.
On the wisdom of the testimony of, to a plain dress, 188. 238. 243.
On the doctrine of, respecting faith, 215. 223.
Early testimony of, against slavery, 68.
Notice of a recent address by, to their fellow citizens on war, 71. 103.
On the doctrines of, in regard to ministry, 83. 231. 244. 279. 335.

Friends. Record by an American minister respecting, in London, 187.
On "Revival Meetings" among, 18. 359. 366.
Essay entitled, Where is the Friend? 28
Extracts from an address to, by George Withy in 1822, 37.
On the purpose of the Most High in raising up the Society of, and the dangers which threaten it, 81.
Address of, to their fellow citizens in relation to war, 97. 105.
On the doctrine of, respecting worship, 106. 253.
On the duty of isolated families of, to faithfully maintain their testimonies, 106.
Extracts from the records of Isoll Preparative Meeting of, 117. 123.
On causes of the decrease of members of the Society of, in certain places, 143.
Yearnings of Maria Fox over young, 158.
Account of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of, held Twelfth Month 1887, 166.
Remarks of Mary Capper on the soul-satisfying doctrines of the early, 171.
On the value of systematic effort to preserve records of births, marriages and deaths of, 178.
Protest against wealth and worldliness among, 180.
On the importance of bearing a testimony by, against war in meekness and sincerity, 185.
Dying testimony of Hugh Stamper to, 195.
Counsel addressed to younger members among, 197.
On the concern of the early, to refute all false charges published against them, 199.
On the character of the ministry of the early, 215. 253.
The religious principles of, lead to the strictest integrity in trade and business, 219. 226. 244. 252. 261. 268. 276. 282. 380.
On the united testimony of the early, to the light of Christ in the heart as well as to his outward offering, 225.
A testimony should be borne by, against the common method of observing the day called Christmas, 227.
On the defection from the principles of, involved in the Home Missionary movement, 231. 245. 336.
Brief narrative in relation to the position of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of, 233. 241. 249. 257. 265. 273.
The testimonies of, to increase until they have filled the earth, 234.
Notice of Concord Quarterly Meeting of, held Second Month 13th, 1888, 238.
Notice of Caln Quarterly Meeting of, held Second Month 17th, 1888, 247.
The true order of the Society of, respecting missionary efforts, 244. 337.
Concern of John Barclay in reference to the kind of business carried on by, 245.
Notice of meetings recently held by, in Philadelphia, 247. 256. 263.
Notice of Western Quarterly Meeting of, held Second Month 24th, 254.
Advice of George Fox to, on transacting the affairs of the church, 259.
Stirring admonitions addressed to, by Sarah (Lynes) Grubb, 259.
On the origin of the testimony of, to the plain language, 285.
Belief of, that Christians should neither give nor receive certain titles of honor, 285.
Remarks of Mary Capper on the consolation derived from the principles of, 285.
Notice of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of, held Third Month 22nd, 1888, 286.
The scruples of, respecting hat honor respected by Chief Justice Waite, 290.
Notice of meetings of, held by appointment of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting, &c., 294. 343. 375. 382. 407.
Testimony of Stephen Grellet on the scattering effects of a forward self-willed ministry among, 317.
of San Jose, Cal. Notice of efforts of, to maintain the standard of faith and consequent suffering, 317.
The unity of, dependent on obedience to the light of Christ, 324.
in Norway. Sketch of the rise of, 325.
Remarks on the decrease of the number of, in Wales, 327.
Friends. On the loss of influence of, in departing from their ancient principles, 328.
Counsel upon increasing love and harmony in the Society of, 330.
in Wales. Observations on, 340.
Condensed statement of the doctrines and testimonies of, by a minister of the Free Church, 347.
Remarks of a former Free Methodist preacher convinced of the principles of, 351.
Testimony upon the effects of a departure from the principles of, in the last twenty years, 359. 366. 407.
Remarks on the false doctrine taught, by leaders of so-called revival movements, 366. 411.
On the evidences among, that gifts in the ministry are conferred upon women, 386.
Comments on the principles of, in holding meetings for Divine worship without pre-arranged services, 391.
On social causes affecting the number of members among, 399.
Account of sufferings by early, for alleged "Sabbath-breaking," 412.
Remarks of an Armenian upon the views of, 415.
Asylum for the insane. Notice of incorporation of, 375.
Asylum for the insane. Notice of the seventy-first annual report of the managers of the, 382.
Formosa. Observations of a recent traveller in, 349.
Frogs. On the winter quarters of, 38.
Fry Elizabeth. Observations on the ministry of, 387.
Funerals. Simplicity at, recommended in a church congress in England, 151.
Items of reform in, advocated by an association in New York, 191.
Remarks on ostentation at, 275.
Funeral. Remarks on the directions of the late Wm. C. Biddle to avoid all ostentation at his, 213.
Comments on the above, 235.
of a scientist. Incident occuring at a, and comments, 405.
Fur Seal. On the habits, &c., of the, 370.
Future in the present. Extract entitled, The, 181.

Gambling. Illustration of the necessity of good example in discouraging, 116.
in stocks, articles of food, &c. On the nature and evil effects of, 35.
Games. On the non-necessity and disadvantage of inter-collegiate, 22. 167.
Gaming spirit. Essay entitled, The, 35.
Gas. On the danger of water, as an illuminator, 326.
Notice of the Welsbach burner for, 382.
Georgia. Notice of a union of different religious denominations in, 302.
Geology. Notice of old lava beds in Connecticut, 14.
On the fossil foot prints in sandstone of Portland, Connecticut, 101.
Erosion of certain rocks attributed to a cryptogamic plant, 150.
The fossil teeth of "dinotherium," 199.
Germany. Remarks on the late great increase of university students in, 13.
Notice of an effort in the State church of Prussia, for greater rights and privileges, 78.
On the labor performed by women and dogs harnessed together in, 102.
On religious liberty in, 174.
On the present condition of, 314.
Gilded sin. On, 9.
Glacier in Alaska. Account of the Muir, 22.
Glass. Method of writing on, 246.
Glue. Receipt for moisture proof, 278.
Good. To do, to others, better than to do good to ourselves, 125.
Goodwin John, of Wales. On the religious character and labors of, 340.
Gold. Notice of an alloy of, with bismuth, called black, 78.
On pulverizing, 414.
Gospel. The vocal and the silent, 202.
the power of God, The 403.
Gough James. Account of a religious visit by, in Wales, 333. 340.
Grain. The danger of shipping, in bulk, 54.
Greek church. Remarks on the, 226.
Greer Elizabeth. Remarks on declining to marry out of the Society of Friends, 358.
Grellet Stephen. Remarks on the life and labors in the gospel of, 217.
Observations of, on ministry, 279. 317. 361. 369.
Divine guidance experienced by, 305. 313. 361. 385.
Grellet Stephen. Account of the early life and convincement of, 345. 369. 386.
Account by, of his observations and experience in Philadelphia, during the visitation of the yellow fever in 1798, 369.
Remarkable foresight of religious service by, 369. 377.
Observations of, on the horrors of war, 393. 401.
Drawn to hold a religious meeting with the manufacturers of weapons of war in Birmingham, England, 401.
Account by, of a trial of his faith, 409.
Grover William. Weighty remarks of, on the ministry, 334.
Grubb Sarah (Lynes). Substance of a religious communication by, in 1836, 259.
Guatemala. On the state of education in, 270.
Guiana Dutch. Notice of gold found in, 414.
Guizot. Declaration of, concerning his religious belief, 141.
Gwalior. Account of the city of, 170.

Habit. Illustration of the power of, 52.
On the importance of breaking off a bad, at once, 134. 236.
Haines Hinchman. Letter of, 147.
Hall Abigail W. Remarks on the recently published account of, and character of, 3. 6. 26. 28. 31.
Hat honor. Letter of Chief Justice Waite to a Friend refusing, 290.
Hatton Susanna. Remarks on the call and service of, in the ministry, 386.
Health. Remarks on the plague in the East, 3.
On trusting in Providence and neglecting proper precautions for, 4.
Observations on the unhealthy climate of the Isthmus of Panama, 6.
On the danger to, of boxing the ears. 14.
Insanity believed to have been caused by inhaling noxious fumes, 86.
On the danger to, by polluting the water supply, 86.
On the localities most favorable to consumption, 110.
On the importance of ventilation in destroying germs of disease, 165.
On the pollution of streams, 166. 278.
On the destruction of sewage matter, &c., by fire, 166.
Notice of the periodical recurrence of pain, 166.
On the use of pain in preserving, 182.
Observations on cancers, 198.
On the evil effects of patent medicines upon, 206.
The importance of sleep to, 206.
On the danger to, from occupying newly built houses, 214.
The injurious effects of cigarette smoking upon the, 70. 222.
The effects of imagination upon the, 246.
Electric sunstroke, 262.
Notice of death caused by a lodgment in the worm-shaped appendage, 278.
On the danger to, from dirt in and near old buildings, 278.
Legal decisions are adverse to any nuisance endangering the, of the public, 278.
Deafness lessened while on a moving engine on a railroad, 278.
A physician's remedy for himself, 281.
Notice of four prize essays on the preservation of, 295.
The injury to, by tight lacing, 302.
The advantage of the non use of stimulants, illustrated, 302.
On the poisonous effect of water gas, 326.
Notice of round-shouldered school children, 326.
Mouldy bread injurious to, 326.
On removing a cinder from the eye, 334.
On the danger to, from spare beds, 342.
Successful treatment of snake poison, 374.
The human breath poisonous, 374.
How to treat cramp in the leg, 390.
Evil effect upon, of excessive sympathy, 390.
Serious injuries to, following a box on the ear, 390.
The power of imagination in restoring, 398.
Sanitary regulations in Paris, respecting beating carpets, 398.
Healy Christopher. Reminiscences of, 236.
Remarks on the testimony borne by, against expense at his funeral, 239.
Heart. In all things the Lord is to have the, 203.
Students imagining they were affected with disease of the, 114.
Heaven. Never sorry in, 158.

Hebrides. Historical incidents connected with the, 85.
Remarks on cottages in the, 132.
On capturing sea fowl in the, 253.
Henry Patrick. Reliance of, on the religion of Christ in the hour of death, 283.
Heroes in daily life. Account entitled, Three, 350.
Holy Scriptures. Remarks on the recent action of New York Yearly Meeting in authorizing the reading of the, in meetings for worship, 151.
Illustrations of passages in the, from Oriental customs, &c., 77. 149. 165. 193. 198. 205, 206. 262. 290. 297. 309. 317. 357. 367. 373. 374. 389. 390.
The revelation of the Spirit necessary to understand the spiritual meaning of the, 81. 255.
A translation of the, approved by Catholics in France, and afterwards condemned, 110. 347.
On the blessing of the, to those who have received the Spirit, 125.
On the essential accordance of the various manuscripts of the Greek New Testament, 156.
Historical account given in the, respecting the ark of the covenant, 186.
not the gospel, but a declaration of the gospel, 202.
On the danger of improperly valuing a knowledge of the, 247. 255.
Lecturing upon the, in the wisdom of man, not ministry, 279.
The impropriety of calling the, the Word of God, 289.
A knowledge of the, not necessary to salvation, 291. 353.
On the recent large circulation of the, in Russia, 311.
Notice of a translation of, into Japanese, 327.
Statistics of the distribution of, 343. 359.
not the gospel, but a declaration of the, 403.
Holy Spirit. Thanksgiving of John Crook for the presence of the, 5.
On the evidence of forgiveness of sin through the, 188.
Illustrations of the influence of the, and comments, 353.
Home. A happy, 85.
Hone William, a former unbeliever. A letter of, 92.
Horse racing. Remarks on the demoralizing effects of, 35. 71.
On discouraging, at agricultural fairs, 39. 71.
intrinsically bad, 91.
Honesty. On the prevalence of, in Sweden and Norway, 187.
of a Scotch newspaper girl, 342.
Horse. A, that carries a halter is soon caught, 134.
Adventures of a, 326.
Household expenses. Remarks on proper methods of economy in, 262.
Hugli river. The, 322. 330.
Humiliation often allotted to the proud and unthankful, 172.
Humility. Remarks on Christian, 36. 179. 241.
The example of, shown by our Saviour, 141. 179.
to be shown in the ministry, 149.
Instruction received in a state of, 171.
The need of, in Christian profession, 373.
Hurried. Avoid becoming, 84.

Ice. Notice of vegetation growing over the surface of, 6.
Immediate revelation. Testimony of an Episcopal clergyman to the doctrine of, 155.
Immorality. The spread of, from so-called works of art, 254.
Immortality of the soul. The, 126.
Industry. The precious things of earth, not to be obtained without, 370.
Indians. Notice of, in the Indian territory, said to be Friends, 7. 158.
Objections of, in the Indian territory to the land-in-severalty bill, 46.
Explanation of the recent outbreak of whites against Ute, in Colorado, 54. 143.
On the cost of maintaining the, in the U. States, by payment of funds, 54.
Notice of schools for, in the United States supported by Roman Catholics, 62.
Reasons of, against holding land in severalty, 99.
"Medicine men" among the Nooksatch, 109.
Account of outrageous persecution of Apache, by the whites, 122.
Comments on the above, 128.
On the progress in education, &c., of the Cherokee, 139.
Notice of an application of Oneida, of Wisconsin, for lands in severalty, &c., 150.
Indians. Notice of a recent visit to Quapaw agency of, 158.
Notice of a legal decision affirming the rights of, to publish a newspaper, 159.
Notice of a memorial requesting that Bibles in the language of, may be used in schools for, 183.
On the practical effects of land in severalty by, in Massachusetts, and comments, 191.
Varied experience of Joseph La Flesche, one of the Omaha, 198.
On the recent progress of the Santee Sioux, 199.
Notice of markings on the totem rocks in the Susquehanna river, the work of, 230.
of Metlakahtla. Notice of, 230.
Notice of memorial of Seneca, against trespassers on their lands, &c., 263.
Indian arrowheads. On spurious, 407.
Ink. On restoring the color of faded, 190.
On a penny bottle of, 205.
Incidents and reflections. Essays entitled, 5. 91. 99. 108. 113. 121. 129. 284. 291. 300, 305. 313. 321. 329. 337. 345. 353. 361. 369. 377. 393. 401. 409.
Infidel. An, without fear or hope in death, like a brute, 220.
Remarks of an, on the inconsistency of professing Christians, 346.
Infirmities not sinful. Essay entitled, 258.
Individual effort and faithfulness. On the necessity of, 76.
On the blessing of, 117. 124.
Intemperance. Notice of the murder of the editor of a prohibition paper in Mississippi, 7.
not diminished by the use of beer, instead of spirits, 7.
Statistics of the relative number of deaths caused by alcohol, 22.
Remarks on the opponents of prohibition, 44.
Sad illustration of the force of, upon an educated woman, 61.
Remarks on the necessity for and justice of laws to prevent, 87.
Touching incident of a boy's devotion to a drunken mother, 101.
Dr. B. W. Richardson on the four stages of intoxication, 111.
Incident, entitled one young man's No., 117.
Notice of a temperance movement in New York State, 119.
A drunkard reformed through the instrumentality of a pious wife, 121.
in London. Remarks on, 125.
On the danger of tampering with, 134.
Practical temperance gaining in London, 151.
Remarks on the repeal of prohibition law in Atlanta, Ga., 167.
Remarks on the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court in reference to prohibition, 167.
Illustration of the happy effects of personal influence against, 174.
Legal decision that intoxication is no excuse for the commission of crime, 183.
Illustration of the power of, 187.
Strong liquors a modern invention, 197.
The legality of abating a liquor saloon as a nuisance affirmed, 199.
Resolution and successful stand of a timid woman against, 205.
Satisfactory results of prohibition in Iowa, 210. 246, 263.
On the lessened duration of life of moderate drinkers, 222.
Notice of proceedings of temperance association of Friends of Philadelphia, 231.
Legal decision in Chicago shielding, 254.
Youthful resolve of Hugh Miller against, 261.
A warning against, 268.
The loss of money in a year by, to one individual, 270.
Warning against, inscribed on a tombstone, 270.
A religious man Divinely required to sell no grain to the distillers, 291.
a curse to the Western Pacific islands, 306.
Sound advice to saloon keepers, 311.
The connection between liquor selling and balls at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, 318.
Comments on an offer of a brewer to build a cathedral, 359.
Recent action of Methodists against, 375. 391.
Action of a recent Assembly of Presbyterians against, 383.
Illustration of the effects of, entitled "Only One Fault," 387.
Intemperance. Beer excluded from the Ohio Centennial Exhibition, 399.
India. Observations of a recent traveller in, 9. 17. 28. 33. 41. 49. 57. 62. 65. 73.
Notice of the large publishing house of Munshi Newal Kishore, in, 58.
Gambling with kites in, 85.
Illustration of caste in, 94.
Observations of a Hindu on Hinduism in, 133.
On the Thugs of, 140.
On the city of Gwalior in, 170.
Notice of the Ramabai association for the instruction of young widows in, 223.
On the salt manufacture in, 230.
On the change of feeling in, resulting from the discovery of the Sanskrit language, 322.
On the Hugli river, 322. 330.
Remarks on sins committed in, which may draw down Divine punishments, 327.
The late increase of the consumption of spirituous liquors in, 351.
Experiences with leopards in, 382.
Notice of a meeting of the Salvation Army in, 391.
Insanity due to a want of self-control, 228. 393.
Iodine. On the manufacture of, 199.
Iowa. On characteristic features, &c., of north-western, 202. 210.
Iron. On the cause of certain deposits from water containing, 162.
The rapid oxidation of, at times the cause of fire, 253.
On the corrosion of, in salt water, 334.
Italy. On the present state of religious liberty in, 223.
On the conflict between state and church in, 303.
On the condition of the people of, 314.
Notice of the abolition of capital punishment in, 407.
Italians. Notice of a large emigration of, to South America, 6.
"It got a-going." Remarks on the power of evil habits, entitled, 236.
Items, 7. 15. 22. 30. 39. 46. 54. 62. 71. 78. 86. 94. 102. 110. 118. 127. 135. 143. 150. 159. 166. 174. 183. 191. 199. 207. 214. 223. 230. 238. 246. 254. 263. 270. 278. 286. 294. 302. 311. 318. 327. 335. 343. 351. 359. 367. 375. 382. 391. 399. 407. 415.
It's good enough. Anecdote of a careless servant, entitled, 317.
Islands of the Pacific. Remarks on the introduction of a curse among, by so-called Christian nations, 306.

Japan. Notice of efforts in, to counteract Christianity, 103.
Cormorant fishing in, 270.
Notice of the manufacture of papier-maché models in, 278.
Testimonials to kind acts of natives of, to shipwrecked sailors, 286.
Notice of a translation of the Holy Scriptures into Japanese, 327.
Jerusalem. Notice of the recent discovery of remarkable ancient tombs in, 11.
Account of the religious visit of Geo. Robinson to, in 1657, 395.
Jews. Notice of a movement among, in Siberia, towards Christianity, 54.
Account of the modern observance of the passover by, 83.
On the, residing in Jerusalem, &c., 87.
On Pharisaic observance of the Sabbath by, in the time of Christ, 149.
On modern observance of the Sabbath by, 151.
On the character, &c., of the Karaite, 167.
Things considered unlawful to be done by, on the Sabbath, 221.
The influence of, in the present day in Europe, 261.
On the character of the, at the time of Christ, 268. 405.
Notices of books current among the, at the Christian era, 380.
On making unleavened bread by, 381.
On the care of the, formerly, to avoid ceremonial defilement, 405.
The geography of the, at the Christian era, 414.
Jewish colonies in Palestine. Notice of a recent visit of Edmund Rothschild to, 30.
Jottings. Contributions, entitled, 354. 365.
Judgement. On exercising, in spiritual matters, 203.
Judging and faultfinding. Essay entitled, 355.
Justification and sactification. The doctrines of George Fox respecting, 119.
Remarks of William Penn upon, 154.

Kamschatka. Observations of a recent traveller in, 354. 364.
Keep your temper. Extract entitled, 335.
Keller Helen, a blind and dumb girl. Brief account of, 318.
Kelp gathering in the Hebrides, &c. On, 199.
Kite Nathan. Letter of the late, 67.
Essay by the late, entitled, Faithful to the Lord, and subject one unto another, 93.
Knowles Henry. An account of the religious experience of, written by himself, 169. 177. 185. 193. 228.

Labors for the good of others blessed, 281.
Labrador. Recent observations upon, 178.
Lake. Notice of the "Walled," in Iowa, 146.
Okechobee. Notice of a recent visit to, 350.
Lake Geo. C. Account of the upright course of, in business, 406.
Language. Advice of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting in relation to the use of the plain, 243. 285. 298.
Extravagance in, rebuked, 255.
Grave offences should not be made light of by indirect, 261.
The whistling, of Gomero Island, 309.
The drum, of the Cameroons, 310.
The sign, of Zanzibar, &c., 310.
Stephen Grellet led to adopt the use of the plain, 313.
Lawyers. Remarks on lying by, 271.
Lava. On the motion of, 342.
Leather. Notice of an insect destroyer of, 46.
Legal decisions on the unlawfulness of gambling in stocks, &c., 35.
Letter of Richard Shackleton, 12.
Nathan Kite, 67.
William Hone, 92.
Joseph Snowdon, 115.
Rebecca Young, 131.
Maria Fox, 139.
Hinchman Haines, 147.
Jehu Ellis, 228.
Thomas Chalkley, 251.
Morrison R. Waite, 290.
John Bright, 327.
Library. Fiction excluded from Friends' free, at Germantown, Philadelphia, 287.
Lie. A, is of the devil, 133.
Life. Statistics of the duration of human, 174.
Our future, largely dependent upon our use of the present, 181.
On making the fabric of, perfect, 364.
The fulfilling of duty makes our, of importance to others, 383.
Light houses. Observations on the number, &c., of birds killed by, 126.
Lightfoot Susanna. Account of, the life and religious labors of, 10.
Lightning. Singular movements of, 14.
On the proper construction of conductors of, 158.
Effect of, on a certain plastered wall, 326.
Lilies of the field of Scripture. On the, 77.
Lincoln Abraham. Anecdote of, 26.
Literature. On pernicious and immoral, 179.
Living. On the comfort and enjoyment of a plain style of, 341.
Liu-kiu islands. Observations on the, by a recent traveller, 349. 354.
Lobsters. On the business of catching, &c., in Maine, 190.
Logic. A little girl's, 71.
Lombardy. Account of the iron crown of, 101.
London. Notice of Dr. Bernardo's labors among the destitute children of, 68. 75. 79. 127. 254.
On the origin, &c., of the "Ragged Schools" in, 78.
A visit to an out-of-the-way corner of, 125.
Temperance movement gaining in, 151.
Notice of a place for poor homeless men in, 151.
On the cost of a day of fog in, 174.
The evils, dangers and responsibilities of, 403.
Love. On true and false, 323. and harmony. Hints upon the true method of increasing, 330.
Lushington Dr. Anecdote of the late, 292.
Lutherans. Notice of parochial schools under the care of, 238.
Resolutions of, against secret societies, 399.

Mammoth. Discovery of a, 374.
Man. Evidence that, has not degenerated in size and strength, 14. 390.
The breath of, poisonous, 374.
Comparative size of ancient and modern, 246. 390.
Man. On discriminating between the weaknesses and wisdom of a, 409.
Manna. Observations of Tischendorf on, 38.
Observations on, in Asia Minor, 70.
Marriage. Notice of a legal decision in Kansas, respecting the accomplishment of, 47.
out of the Society of Friends. Remarks of Elizabeth Greer on, 358.
Marriages. William H. Pennell to Rebecca J. Pusey, 80; Walter P. Stokes to Anna N. R. Smedley, 80; James Henderson to Eunice H. Smith, 104; Samuel C. Webster to Hannah W. Henderson, 112; Samuel C. Moon to Rachel Anna Price, 120; Clarkson J. Cox to Sophronia Spencer, 144; Charles Forsythe to Caroline W. Hayes, 240; J. Edwin James to Mary H. Cope, 280; William W. Hazard to Rebecca Haight, 320; William B. Kirkbridge to Harriet J. Smedley, 392.
Mastodon. The remains of a, discovered near Pemberton, N. J., 53.
Maulsby James. Testimony of, on his death-bed, 283.
Meek will he guide in judgment. The, 203.
Memory. Remark on the power of, 165.
Memories of the prairies, 36. 42. 90. 114. 146. 154. 194. 234. 331.
Mennonites. A visit among the, (concluded from Vol. LX., p. 412,) 1.
Remarks on the religious views of, 1. 383.
Testimony of, against secret societies, 127. 359. 383.
On causes of the decrease of the number of, in certain places, 143.
Remarks of a, on checking the growth of pride in dress, &c., among, 367.
Notice of resolutions adopted by a recent conference of, 383.
Methodists. Notice of the late increase of, in the Southern States, 135.
Vital piety among, in England, not what it has been, 159.
Resolutions of, against the theatre, 199.
Notice of the appointment of women as delegates to the general conference of, 278. 343.
Remarks on difficulties experienced by, in the appointment of ministers, 335.
Notice of the occurrence and powers of a general conference, 343.
Notice of a proposed movement among, to prevent the secularization of the First-day of the week, 359.
An order of deaconesses authorized by, 359.
Recommendation of arbitration in a recent conference of, 367.
Action of, in favor of total abstinence and prohibition, 375. 391.
Mexico. Notice of a reaction in, in favor of Roman Catholics, 7.
Notice of efforts of Roman Catholics in, 15.
Notice of a Monthly Meeting in the city of, 246.
Milk. On the cheapness and value of skim, as compared with meats, 126.
Microscope. Use of the, in sending messages by carrier pigeons, 6.
The limit of visibility with the, 230.
Mifflin Mary. Remarkable incident in the experience of, 109.
Mines. Notice of explosions in, caused by coal dust, 22.
Carbonic acid used to extinguish fires in, 70.
Ministry. Remarks on a worldly, 2.
Christ and not man ordains the true, 7. 323. 346. 369.
True, always scriptural, 15.
On a true and a false, 18. 323.
On a hireling, 74.
True, not obtained by scholastic training, but by the gift of God, 83. of women. Correct views in regard to, spreading in the Christian church, 127. 308.
On professional preaching as distinguished from, 133.
On exercising a judicious care over the, 148.
On the need of humility among those in the, 149.
Considerations on the work of some professed "evangelists," 191.
Reason for the lack of a deeply baptized gospel, 202.
The need for power from on high, for every exercise in the, 218. 244.
Profitable cautions in reference to the, 247.
Account of a religious visit of an African servant, 269.
must not be degraded to lecturing on religious subjects, 279.
Ministry. The experience of Deborah Bell in the, 281. of James Simpson. Anecdotes of, 315, 340.
The light of Christ to be the leader in the, 325.
Remarks on carefulness in the exercise of the, 334.
in connection with missionary labors. On the doctrines of Friends in regard to, 337.
On the awful consequences of making merry over the, 340.
The example of the Apostle Paul in working with his own hands, 342.
On judging of the, 355.
On the, and the qualification to judge of it, 357.
Incidents illustrating the exercise of, by faith, 361.
Remarkable incidents in the, of Stephen Grellet, 369. 377. 385.
Evidences in the annals of Friends, that gifts in the, are conferred upon women, 386.
Mirrors. How glass, are made, 245.
Missouri. Observations of a traveller in, in 1872, 331.
Missouri river. Remarks on the erosion of the bluffs along the, 234.
Mitchell Joseph, required to bear testimony in 1787 against superfluities, &c., in Newport, R. I., 331.
Mohammedan pilgrimages to Mecca conducted by the Cooks, 39.
Mohammedanism. Remarks on the morality of, as compared with Hinduism, 183.
On the doctrine of, 246.
Moment. On the importance of what may be an incident of a, 87.
Moon. On the barren and volcanic surface of the, 341.
Morality in little things. Incident entitled, 108.
Moravians. Notice of the proposed meeting of the Synod of, in 1889, 15.
Mormon. On the origin of the book of, 135.
Remarks on David Whitmer's testimony concerning the book of, 277.
Moths. Plan proposed to keep, from woolens, 278.
Mother's experience. A, 37.
Motherless child. Touching experience of a, 158.
Mourning apparel. On the inconsistency of, for Christians, 235.
Money. Advice in regard to getting and using, 348.
Mound. The restoration of the serpent, in Adams Co., Ohio, 374.
Mucilage. A receipt for, 134.
Notice of a patented, 278.
Mummies discovered in the neighborhood of southern Arizona, 110.
Music. Strictures of a Roman Catholic bishop on choristers employed to produce, 39.
in "mission work." Comments by Methodists on the use of, 127.

Napoleon. On the bloody career of, 20.
National Women's Christian Temperance Union. Notice of the efforts of, in regard to social purity, 231.
Natural History. The "baya" sparrow, 28; Butterflies, 29; Humming Birds, 30; Eels, 30; A captive Stickleback, 39; A new Flamingo, 39; An intelligent caterpillar, 44; The dry hide worm, 46; On the value of humble-bees in raising clover seed, 46; Keen scent of leeches, 46; Change of color in sunfish, 46; Instinct of a dog, 54; The rat, 70; Alleged insect devourer of steel, 70; Scorpions, 70; On the scent of dogs, 70; The keenness of scent in a dog, 70; Octopus fishing, 78; A remedy for the aphis, 86; The English sparrow, 94; An intimacy with a bird, 102; The hop-louse, 110; Prairie chickens, 114; A new caterpillar, 118; Monkeys, 118; Sea-shore animals, 130. 217; Sagacity of a dog, 134. 262. 358. 406; Cultivation of oysters in China, 135; The razor-fish, 135; Jelly-fish, 138; The Giraffe, 142; Hermit crabs, 142; Sea anemone, 150; Sagacity of elephants, 150; Ants, 150, 299; Kites, 154; Insect life destroyed by a colony of blackbirds, 159; A shower of ants, 165; Wild animals and the telegraph, 166; The hippopotamus, 166; The Puffin, 178; Mason wasps, 182; Fish out of water, 182; Lizards, 198; Wasps in Mauritius, 206; A wood-tattler, 207; Lions and vultures in South Africa, 213; Catching porpoises in Hudson's bay, 222; The walrus, 222; Crocodiles, 230; Edible birds' nests, 230; Marsh wrens, 230; Slave-making ants, 237; Association of ideas in animals, 246; Insects infecting pine trees, 258; Gall flies, 258; Bees, 262; Cormorants, 270; White ants, 270; Beavers in Europe, 270; Forster's terns, 270; On certain acute senses in animals, 286; Vision in centipedes, 286; Breathing in insects, 294; Fascination in animals, 294; Purple martins, 299; Alligators, 307; Cunning of a fox, 311; How fishes live in winter, 318; Sympathy in a cat, 326; The upholsterer bee, 333; Instinct of an old rat, 342; Discrimination of birds, 342; A quarrel among birds, 351; Birds of Paradise, 349. 394. 402; Sables, 354; The wild goat of Joura, 358; Tame squirrels, 358; A school for training horses, 358; The salmon, 364; A tame magpie, 366; Hessian fly in New Zealand, 366; Transportation of live fish, 366; The fur seal, 370; The mammoth, 374; Animal sympathy, 375; The great auk, 382; Leopards, 382; Jocko, the parrot, 391; The maleo, 394; Migrating swallows, 398; Vegetable growths on sloths, 398; A parasite of the Japanese silk-worm, 398; Decoy pigeons, 398; The kingfisher, 407; The seventeen-year locust, 412; The oven-bird, 414.

Natural gas. Observations on the present abundant supply of, &c., 334.
New Guinea. Observations of a recent traveller in, 402.
New every morning. Extract entitled, 157.
Newton John. An outline of the life of, and comments, 19. 25. 34. 43. 51.
New York. On the beneficial results of the Children's aid society of, 174.
Account of the operations of the post office in, 229.
New Zealand. Remarks on the introduction of vices by white men among the natives of, 191.
Niagara in winter, 251.
No other Name is given—No other Way is known. Essay entitled, 98.
Norway. Demand for ecclesiastical reform in, 15.
Brief sketch of the rise of Friends in, 325.
Notes from the region of the Sioux rivers, 202. 210.
on natural history, 299.
on the theatre, 299.

Oaths. Remarks on the uselessness of judicial, 62.
The use of judicial, increases irreverence and general profanity, 287.
Obedience. Essay entitled, 42.
to the visitations of heavenly grace, 197.
to the grace of God. By, we are made righteous, 388.
Oil. Notice of dangers arising from using kerosene, in improved lamps, 22.
The application of, to smoothing the ocean, 150.
"One of you shall betray me." Extract, entitled, 373.
One young man's No. Incident entitled, 117.
One stitch at a time, 364.
Onions. On Egyptian, 150.
"Only ten minutes." On the dangers of procrastination, entitled, 347.
Opium. On the policy of Great Britain in extending the production of, in India, 57.
Results of forcing the use of, upon the Chinese in preventing the reception of Christianity, 87.
Oriental watchers. Observations on customs, &c., in Palestine, entitled, 297.

Paine Thomas. Account of the last days of, 236.
Palestine in the time of Christ, 268. 274. 283. 290. 300. 317. 357. 374. 380. 405. 414.
Paper. On the preparation of safety, 38.
On the use of, for axle boxes, 142.
The uses of, 238.
Parents. Encouragement to, to order their children in the meekness and authority of Truth, 154.
The responsibility of, not to be delegated to First-day school teachers, 162.
The need of a good example in, 405.
Patent medicines. How, are dealt with in Germany, 213.
A majority of, said to be frauds, 326.
"Patient in tribulation" or trial. Essay entitled, 107.
Path from earth to heaven. The, 306.
Patchouly. Notice of the, 246.
"Past Feeling." Exhortation entitled, 283.
Paul the Apostle. Remarks on the example of, in working with his own hands, 342.
Paving blocks constructed on the pattern of an elephant's tooth, 366.
Peace. On a true and false, in religion, 338.
On the triumphs of, 341.
Divine protection extended to those who believe in, 401.
Peacemaker. Extract entitled, The, 396.
Penn William. Declaration of, on a blast upon unauthorized preachings, prayings, &c., 180.
on the doctrine of light of Christ in man, as the fundamental doctrine of Friends, 218. 225. 381.
on the true Christian life, 236.
on ministry, 279.
Testimony of, to the Holy Scriptures, 311.
on the church, 378.
Exhortation of, to be obedient to the Word in the heart, 383.
William Penn. Account of the treatment of a counterfeiter by, in Pennsylvania, 413.
Pennsylvania. Description of a section of the coal regions of, 338.
Penington Isaac. On knowing Christ in his inward and outward revelation, 4.
The way to salvation pointed out by, 188.
Practice of, in reading the Holy Scriptures, 255.
Peppermint. On the production of oil of, in New York, 158.
Perfection. The doctrine of, as held by Friends, 81.
Perilous times in the last days. Essay entitled, 235.
Perseverance an important element of success, 278.
Petroleum. On a method of solidifying, for fuel, 190.
Phenician inscription. Notice of the discovery of a bilingual, 12.
Philadelphia. Account by Stephen Grellet of the visitation of yellow fever to, in 1798, 369.
Phonograph. The, used by Edison for recording the sounds of an infant, 414.
Plague in the East. On the, 3.
Plants. Notice of remarkable variations in, 14.
On pearls found in, 22.
On the dwarfing of, by the Chinese, 29.
Remarks on, found on the Western prairies, 36.
found near Atsion, N. J., 67. 74.
The rooting of, often dependent on association with others, 78.
On symbiosis in, 86.
Illustration of suspended life in, 165.
Drooping peach trees revived by hot water, 326.
Plants. Nightshades, 6; The prickly pear, 13; Pigmy palms, 14; Toad stools and their allies, 18. 26. 51. 59. 82. 258. 293; The lantana, 22; The mocassin flower, 36; The compass plant, 36; The rolling-weed, 37; The Indian pipe, 59; The coral root, 59; A large elder tree, 61; The allspice, 70; The side saddle flower, 74; The mountain laurel, 78; Sea shore plants, 122; The pickle weed, 122; Sea weeds, 123; The mesquit, 142; Spagnum, 154; The olive, 181; The wild ground nut, 190; The bread fruit, 198; Seed, 205; Luminous plants, 206; Eel grass, 237; Tree growth, 294; Submarine Flora of the Hebrides, 311; Dog's-tooth violet, 315; The Spring beauty, 315; Pansy, 315; Lousewort, 315; Remarks on plants imported into America, 333; The traveller's tree, 335; The birch, 354; The oleander, 358; Crucifera, 363; The shepherd's purse, 363; The nutmeg, 394. The Kanari nut, 394; The cork oak, 398.
Poetry.—Original.—The Christian's warfare, 44; Light in obscurity, 116; As Rachel mourning, 132; Oh who will stand? 148; Whittier at eighty, 156; In memoriam, 180; Mourn not for the dead, 244; Sonnet, 285; An evening hymn in Wales, 285; Divine help, 292; Light, 324; The ruins of time, 372; Creedcraft, 380; The ocean's voice, 389.
Poetry.—Selected.—Answered, 221; At the gate, 236; After all, 268; A baby's command, 68; Beware of the wolf, 92; Best of all, 172; The blind child, 188; A boy's promise, 212; Between the lights, 236; The bird's breakfast, 244; Best, 308; Be careful, 372; Beautiful things, 396; Confidence, 100; Comfort one another, 116; The coast guard, 172; Cumbered about much sewing, 212; Calling the angels in, 356; Deliciæ Senectutis, 5; "Do it with all your might," 92; The departing year, 188; The elm and the vine, 180; Faith, 12; Forgotten workers, 180; Free gifts, 276; Freedom in Brazil, 412; God knows best, 12; God's husbandry, 36; The great victories, 52; "Gates of the city," 60; The gate of the year, 204; Grandpa and baby, 308; Grasp the nettle, 316; God knows, 364; Gracie's discovery, 389; A girl heroine, 404; God leads, 412; Dr. Holmes' new poem, 12; Human life, 20; Hymn, 36; How easy it is, 52; Hymn of the Hebrew maid, 60; The heart's discipline, 68; Harvest home, 68; Hymn of trust, 76; He chose this path for thee, 140; He did it unto Me, 180; He maketh me to lie down, 268; Here or there, 332; He was not there, 332; "I shall be satisfied," 60; In turn, 116; The irreparable loss, 244; Incompleteness, 260; Inasmuch, 260; Influence, 332; Knowledge and faith, 188; Lines, 28. 252; For love's sake, 124; To give, to live, to die, 172; Lines by John Quincy Adams, 204; The little prisoners, 212; The letter from home, 221; Lament of a father on the death of his son, 260; The lost spring, 292; Looking beyond, 324; A last prayer, 324; Mother's stories, 44; The mother's return, 52; Mother is resting, 148; My old house, 285; To myself, 285; Ministering, 340; Mountain locked, 348; The morn with light is breaking, 380; Noon in a New England pasture, 100; A New Year's meditation, 196; New Year thoughts, 196; Nobility, 380; One more in heaven, 36; The old wife, 300; Only one, 316; The prime of life, 20; Purple pansies, 108; The Potter's hand, 156; A plea for Autumn, 156; The peaceful life, 228; A plain little girl, 236; "In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength," 252; In the quietness of life, 276; The Quaker Meeting in Pennsylvania in 1688, 316; Ruth, 76; The refuge, 196; Rejected of men, 221; Seeds, 44; In sunset land, 84; Sunset, 92; A song of the burden bearer, 124; Somewhere, 164; The sin of omission, 300; The shepherd's appeal and comments, 340; The shadow, 389; Singing in the rain, 396; In summer fields, 396; So tired, 412; The turned lesson, 5; Tired, 28; Trust, 84; Take needed rest, 108; The tides, 108; "Take my yoke upon you," 140; Thoughts in a place of worship, 164; Three helps, 300; True victory, 356; True love, 356; Thoughts in a library, 364; Ten true friends, 364; The use of tears, 20; The unanswered prayer, 100; Unselfishness, 124; The useful little girl, 148; Work while you work, 76; The wish of the leaf, 132; The wool on the thorn, 164; When the winter days draw nigh, 204; When Jesus came, 228; A winter song, 252; Which loved best? 340; Without and within, 372; A wasted life, 380; Waiting, 404.
Poor. Are we helping the? 134.
Porcelain shot for cleaning bottles, 407.
Post office in New York City. Account of the operations of the, 229.
Potassium. Experiment with the metal, 326.
Poverty. Spiritual, may often occur from our own neglect, 203.
Power from on high. Essay entitled, 218.
Remarks on the above, 244.
Prairies. On the probable origin of the, 182.
Memories of the, 36. 42. 90. 114. 146. 154. 194. 234. 331.
Prayer. Considerations on the Lord's, 69. must be seasoned with heavenly salt, 228.
Remarks on the voice in, 301.
Remarks on vocal, 381.
Instances of, and comments, 321. 329.
Presbyterians. Notice of money raised by, for foreign missions, 103.
Remarks on incipient ritualism among, 375.
Action of a recent Assembly of, against intoxicating drinks, 383.
Women ordained as deacons by Reformed, 407.
Preservation from danger. Incidents and reflections entitled, 284.
"Printed Poison." Remarks on the translation of, into French, &c., 179.
Prisons in Iowa. Remarks on, 319.
Prophecy. On the gift of, 405.
Providential deliverances, 5. 108. 194. 284. 291. 300. 305. 329.
Pyrofusin. On the value of, as an antiseptic, &c., 174.

Quackery. Ingenious, 174.

Railroad bridge over the Ganges. Notice of a new, 310.
car wheels. The life of, 335.
employees. Photographers and cats as, 335.
Railroads. Steel sleepers used for, in India, 86.
in N. W. Iowa. Remarks on, 210.
Rabbits. Account of the wholesale destruction of, in New Zealand, 181.
Raimond Lull. Account of religious character and labors of, 357.
Ramabai association for the help of young widows, The, 223.
Rat-trap. Notice of an electrical, 6.
Ramble in the fields. A, 258.
in the woods. A, 332.
Reindeer. On the milk of the, 214.
Religion. On watchfulness against worldliness in, 2.
Definition of, and comments, 43.
On the uselessness of the activity of self in, 49.
On the upright example of those who act from principle in, 59.
On the prevalence of a merely intellectual, 61.
A growth in, dependent upon obedience to what has been made known, 84.
On creaturely excitement in, 135.
Observations of Maria Fox on substituting expression for experience in, 139.
The cross of Christ to be borne in order to know a growth in, 187.
The fruits of, in daily life, 209. 243.
The nature of a true revival in, 266.
On true and false, 323.
On a true and false peace in, 338.
On the nature of true, 374.
Architectural display not consistent with the Christian, 411.

Religion and morality. Remarks on, 371.
Religious foundation." Essay entitled "Our, 59.
feeling may be dissipated by much company or reading, 157.
liberty in Great Britain and Switzerland. On, 167.
liberty in Germany. On, 174.
liberty in Europe. On, 223.
bodies. Remarks on the evil of adopting political methods in, 192.
bodies. No distinction in regard to race or color to exist in, 263.
professors. The indifference of many, a cause of mourning, 402.
"Remove not the ancient landmarks which thy fathers have set," 212.
Resistance, a condition of progress, 204.
Restitution the fruit of repentance. Instances of, 243.
Resurrection of the body. On the care of Friends to avoid speculation concerning the, 271.
The, believed in by Roman Catholics, 375.
Rights. No personal, except through the law, 269.
Ritualism. Remarks of a Presbyterian on, 375.
River. On the Hugli, 322.
Account of the inundation by the Hoang Ho, in 1887, 397.
Rivers. On sounding the depths of, 263.
Roberts John. Preservation of, from danger, in obedience to a Divine requiring, 291.
Robinson George. Account of a religious visit by, to Jerusalem in 1657, 395.
Roman Catholics. Notice of efforts of, in Mexico, 15.
Offer of a bishop of a number of masses, &c., for one dollar, 30.
Strictures of a bishop of, on choristers, 39.
Remarks on the tendency towards the, among Episcopalians, 62.
Notice of firmness of African converts to, under persecution; 62.
Disgraceful method of raising money for purposes of the, 62.
Notice of schools supported by, among Indians in the United States, 62.
Notice of an orphanage for Chinese babies in Ningpo, under the care of, 93.
On the course of training pursued by, towards candidates for the priesthood, 96.
On the doctrine of the real presence as held by, 96.
A translation of the Bible approved by, in France, and afterwards condemned by the Pope, 110. 347.
A colony of Greek, at Shenandoah, Pa., 159.
The political influence of, subject to the direction of the Pope, 238.
Notice of the numbers of colored, in the Southern States, 247.
On the increasing efforts of the, to gain power and influence in the United States, 250.
On the conflict between Church and State in Italy, 303.
Notice of a proposed meeting of archbishops in America to consider the Labor question, 335.
Assertion of, in Parliament, that the Pope has no right to interfere in political affairs, 359.
Religious intolerance of certain, in Spain, 367.
Cremation prohibited by, 375.
Notice of a recent Papal encyclical against slavery, 375.
Reasons of a priest, for withdrawing from the, 399.
Romans. Exploration of a necropolis of ancient, in Spain, 126.
Rome. The fall of, due to ill-gotten wealth, 324.
Roumania. Observations of a recent traveller in, 282.
Ruby. Notice of a large, found near Atlanta, Ga., 414.
Rules. On the distinction between, and principles, 161. 196.
Rural hours. Notes on natural history, entitled, 333.
Ruskin John. Remarks of, on the mistaken views he had expressed in his writings, 116.
Russia. Disabilities of dissenters from the Greek church in, 86.
Observations on the present condition of, 314.
Ryerss Annie W. Notice of a bequest of, for relief of Indians and freedmen, 119.

Sabbath. Pharisaic views respecting the, in the time of Christ, 149.
On the modern observance of the, by Jews, 151.
Things considered unlawful to be done on the, 221.
Saints. The anointing within, the preservation of, 87.
Salvation. The terms of, conditional, 75. 373.
Salvation. Christ the way to, 98. 188.
The only way to, stated by Isaac Penington, 188.
The light of Christ in the heart the great agent in the, of mankind, 225.
Salvation Army. Notice of the, 207. 391.
Samaritans. Account of the origin and final extinction of the, 274.
Sanskrit language. On the change of feeling in India due to the discovery of the, 322.
Sands David. The happy experience of, on the approach of death, 287.
Saturn. Notice of the planet, 293.
Scattergood Joseph. Letter of, to Joseph Snowden, with comments, 115.
School teacher. Brave conduct of a young, in a Nebraska storm, 219.
Schools. Remarks on the folly of doing nothing in, during warm weather, 46.
On the great importance of competent teachers for primary, 78.
On the origin of the Ragged, in London, 78.
On the importance of using text books in, which do not glorify wars, 143.
First-day, so far as they excuse parents from responsibility, mischievous, 162.
Notice of Lutheran, in America, 238.
in Guatemala. Remarks on the efficient, 270.
The impracticability of avoiding religious instruction in public, 302.
Scotch generosity. Notable instance of, 374.
Schwenkfeldians. Proposed re-issue by, of the works of their founder, 39.
Scientific Notes, &c., 6. 14. 22. 29. 38. 46. 53. 61. 70. 78. 86. 94. 101. 110. 118. 126. 134. 142. 150. 158. 165. 174. 181. 190. 198. 206. 213. 222. 230. 237. 245. 253. 262. 270. 278. 286. 294. 302. 310. 318. 326. 334. 342. 350. 358. 366. 374. 382. 390. 398. 407. 414.
Scott Job. Remarks of, on the pursuit of wealth, 307.
Scotland. Church ceremonies among the islands of, 188.
Sea-side walk. A, 217.
Secret Societies. Testimony of Mennonites against, 127. 359.
Recent resolutions of German Lutherans against, 399.
Notice of a new edition of a treatise by J. W. Leeds upon, 408.
Extract from the above, 413.
"Secret things belong unto God," 180.
Seed a living thing. A, 205.
Self-control. Remarks of an officer of an insane asylum on the need of, 228.
The need of, to keep the mind balanced, 393.
Self-defence. The value of Solomon's system of, 403.
Self-indulgence and dishonesty. On the connection between, 335.
Sepharvaim. Notice of recent explorations in the ancient city of, 324.
Serpent mound of Loch Nell. On the, 145.
Servia. On the present condition of, 260.
Sewage. Experiments with electricity in the disposition of, 246.
Shackleton Richard. Letter of, to his daughter Mary, 12.
On the religious and happy character of, in his own home, 164.
Shark. An encounter with a, 62.
Ships. A danger to, from iron masts, 246.
Shipwreck of the Derry Castle. Account of the, 242.
Silk culture in China. On, 126.
Sin. On gilded, 9.
The avoidance of, 199.
Simpson James. Anecdotes of the ministry of, 315, 340.
Silver Springs, Fla. Account of a recent visit to, 307.
Singing and making melody in the heart, 244.
Skene Lilias. Biographical account of, 147.
Skin. Observations on some recent transplantings of, 6.
Slavery. Early efforts of Friends against, 68.
discouraged by Geo. Fox, 153.
in Palestine at the Christian era. Remarks on, 283.
in Brazil. Remarks on the pacific abolition of, 341, 415.
Notice of a papal encyclical on, 375.
Poem upon the recent abolition of slavery in, 412.
Sleep. The secret of a night's good, 261.
Smith John, of Marlborough, Chester Co., Pa. Narrative of sufferings of, for his testimony against war, 89.
Snake-poison. Successful treatment of, 374.
Notice of superstitions in relation to, 414.
Snow. Notice of the power of, in resisting the passage of bullets, 6.
Social purity. Notice of pledges taken in reference to, 231.
Sound-blindness. Remarks on, 158.
Spain. Pre-historic relics found in, 174.
On the present state of religious liberty in, 223, 255.
Spear S. T. Religious experience of, during heavy affliction, 139.
Spirit of Christ. Essay entitled, The, 220.
Spiritualistic deceptions. Remarks on, 277.
"Spiritualism" and divination. Remarks on, 405.
Spontaneous combustion of cotton, &c. Instances of, 382.
Sponges. On the planting of, 390.
Spring ramble. A, 293. 315.
Spring. Chemical action of a thermal, upon coins, &c., 366.
Stamper Hugh. Dying testimony of, 195.
Stars. Notice of the appearance of certain, &c., 293.
States. Moral principles apply to, as well as to individuals, 407.
Steel. Curious phenomenon observed in testing, 86.
Steam engines. Notice of revolving, 310.
Stirredge Elizabeth. Account by, of her call to the ministry, and comments, 386.
Stones. White, buried with the dead, 124.
shall cry out." Essay entitled. "The, 53.
Storms. The approach of, indicated by falling smuts, 237.
Suicide epidemical, 86.
Sulu islands. Account of a recent visit to, 387.
Summary of events, 7. 15. 23. 31. 39. 47. 55. 63. 71. 80. 88. 95. 103. 112. 120. 128. 136. 144. 152. 160. 168. 176. 184. 192. 200. 208. 215. 224. 232. 239. 248. 255. 264. 271. 279. 287. 295. 304. 312. 320. 328. 336. 344. 252. 360. 368. 376. 384. 392. 400. 408. 416.
Superstitions current at the present time. Remarks on, 167. 199. 414.
Sure foundation. Essay entitled, The, 291.
Survival of ancient rites in the Highlands and isles of Scotland, 155, 161, 171.
Susquehanna river. Notice of the totem rocks and pot-holes in the, 230.
Swamp. Method of draining a large, in Illinois, 278.

Tanning. Improvement in, 302.
Taylor Hudson. An incident in the early life of, 194.
Telescope. On the advantage of a large, 85.
Telescopes. Visit to a maker of, 355.
Terms of salvation conditional, The, 75.
Theatre. Illustration of the corrupting influence of the, 7.
The, intrinsically bad, 91.
Resolutions of Methodists against the, 199.
Comments on the incompatibility of the, with religion, 215.
Notes on the evil influence of the, &c., 299.
Thief hugged by a bear. A, 302.
Thoughts. On restraining and purifying the, 2.
"Thousand Islands." Notice of the, 46.
Tie the camel and trust God. Extract entitled, 4.
Timber. Hints upon the preservation of, after cutting, 94.
Time to criticize and a time to be silent. A, 36.
Time pieces. Notice of curious, 365.
Tin. On the discovery of and probable large future yield of, in Dakota, 110.
Tithe agitation in Wales. Notice of the present, 30.
Tithes. Distraint upon Jane M. Bingham for, and remarks on the unwisdom of clergymen in exacting, 143.
Refusal of John Darbyshire to pay, and the reasons therefor, 223.
Toad stools and their allies, 18. 26. 51. 59. 82.
Tobacco. The sale of, to minors under sixteen years, prohibited in Illinois, 39.
Notice of death caused by smoking cigarettes, 70.
Account of the convictions of religious persons of the sinfulness of using, 91.
The extent and dangers of cigarette smoking, 156. 222.
Tolstoi Count. Notice of the character and religious views of, 79.
Torrey Dr. Singular method of the entrance of, upon botanical studies, 375.
Tract. A, made instrumental for good to a young man, 113.
Tract repository. Statement of the operations of, &c., for 1887, 207.
Tract Society of London. Notice of the work of the Religious, 207.
Trade and business. Cautions addressed by Friends in relation to, 219. 226. 244. 252. 261. 268. 276. 282.
Remarks on the immorality of trading beyond capital, 373.

Trade and business. The character for integrity in, acquired by Friends, 380.
Trees. On the decay of, 94.
The effect of ice on the branches of certain, 407.
Tregelles E. O. Notice of a religious visit of the late, to the West Indies, 76.
Tropical vegetation. Remarks of a naturalist on, 387.
Truth. On the supreme importance of, 133.
On perverting the, by concealing important facts, 243.
On perverting the, by actions, 405.
Tumblers. On the origin of the word, 236.
Turkey. Schools for women started by the Sultan of, 327.

Unconscious influence of a good man. On the, 60.
United States Treasury. On the redemption of charred notes, &c., by the, 214.
Universality of Divine grace. Testimony of an Episcopal clergyman to the doctrines of, 155.

Vaccination. Notice of the beneficial results of, 310.
Vassar college. Commendable plan adopted by a poor girl at, to defray expenses, 278.
Ventilation. Low ceilings in rooms recommended on account of better, 86.
Vinegar plant and the vinegar eel. Observations on the, 62.
Visit among the Mennonites. A, [concluded from Vol. LX., p. 412], 1.
Visit to Atsion, N. J. Account of, 67. 74.
Visit to Ohio. Account of a, 98. 106.
to the seashore. Account of a, 122. 130. 138.
to West Florida. Account of a, 410.
Volcano near Bavispe, Mexico. Account of a, 85. of Tama. A natural lighthouse, 190.
of Kilauea. Account of a recent visit to the, 212.
of Tambora. Notice of an eruption of, in 1815, 365.
Volcanoes in Kamschatka. Remarks on, 365.

Waite. Chief Justice. Remarks on the high character and death of, 290.
Waiting on the Lord. On the preciousness of, 157.
Wallachians. Observations on the, 276.
Was it a slander? Extract entitled, 371.
Watchfulness against worldliness in religion. On, 2.
Wales. Notice of a recent non-conformist burial in, 375.
War. Notice of a movement in favor of arbitration in the English House of Commons, 7. 71. 231.
Remarks on the, attending and following the French revolution, 20.
Recent instances of successful international arbitration in place of, 22.
On the danger done to young children by teaching them erroneous views in regard to, 22.
Remarks on a ploughshare made of swords on exhibition in Manchester, England, 30.
On playing soldier among royal families in Europe, 71.
On the responsibility of professed ministers of the gospel in relation to, 71.
Notice of an address to our fellow-citizens by Friends in relation to, 71. 103.
Remarks of members of American Association of Science in relation to, 78.
Remarks of David Dudley Field in opposition to, 87.
Narrative of the sufferings of John Smith for his testimony against, 89.
Reflections of a soldier in relation to, 94.
Address of Friends to their fellow-citizens upon, 97. 105.
A woman's objections to, 99.
Mottoes in regard to the folly of, appended to relics lately exhibited in England, 102.
On the views of the President of the United States in reference to, 119.
Remarks of Ex-President Hayes on the glory of the United States as a great pacific power, 127.
The false glory connected with, a fruitful cause of, 135.
Movement in England to render military officials ineligible to Parliament, 135.
Remarks on the waste of, 140.
averted by arbitration in Bechwanaland, 141.
On the influence which school books may exert in preventing, 143.
The Countess Von Bothmer on military exploits, 157.
The expensiveness of modern implements of, 214.
The effect of standing armies on morality and social life, 214.
War. Remarks in the United States Senate on the British arbitration memorial, 231.
The effects of an explosion during a, in India, 237.
Arbitrary measures adopted in Denmark to provide for, 247.
The effects of, in England in deadening the national conscience, 254.
Brutality connected with the, in Burmah, 254.
Fable picturing the barbarity and wickedness of, 258.
Aggregate number of men in the standing armies of Europe, and comments, 263.
Comments on averting the horrors of, in Europe, 264.
Making peace between savage tribes in Borneo, 266.
turns man into a beast of prey, 278.
Comments on a recent instance of successful arbitration instead of, 302.
The evidence of the evil of, in malingering, 302.
Remarks on the refusal of the United States to participate in measures to protect the natives of the Western Pacific islands from, 306.
On the folly of the proposed coast defences of the United States, 319. 335.
Remarks by John Bright on the sanction of, by the 37th article of the Church of England, 327.
Immorality almost inseparable from the profession of arms, 327.
one of Satan's bulwarks, 327. 401.
Leigh Richmond's objection to the profession of arms, 335.
Slavery abolished in Brazil without, 341.
Testimony of a general to the sad suffering caused by, to women and children, 341.
General Sherman on the inhumanity of, 343.
On the large relative proportion of suicides among soldiers, 343.
Notice of the efforts of Raimond Lull against, in the 13th century, 357.
On the dangerous effect of "The Boys' Brigade" in fostering, 367.
On preparations for, in Europe, 367.
Arbitration instead of, recommended in a Methodist Conference, 367.
A resolution looking to arbitration passed by the United States Senate, 382.
Comments on a proposed Conference of South American Republics in relation to arbitration, 391.
Observations of Stephen Grellet on the horrors of, 393. 401.
A resolution proposed in France to adopt arbitration with the United States, 399.
Comments on the above, 399.
The destruction of a town prevented by a believer in peace principles during a Caffer, 401.
Specious arguments on the duty of the civil magistrate used to defend, 401.
The domestic demoralization caused by, even greater than the horrors of the battlefield, 401.
Water. Test for sewage contamination in, 118.
Observations on the corrosion of iron in salt, 334.
Waterspouts. Circumstances attending the formation of, 286.
Watts Isaac. Remarks on the character of, 125.
Wealth. Remarks on the blessings of a freedom from the improper pursuit of, 307.
On the dangers of the United States from, and voluptuousness, 324. and worldliness. Protest against, 180.
Wedding customs in the East, 389.
Well. The patent for the driven, declared invalid, 158.
Westtown Boarding School. An account of, first published in 1824, and comments, 27.
Notice of the close of the late winter session of, &c., 287.
Remarks on the present summer session of, 379.
Address to graduates of, 379.
Westtown graduates. Notice of a meeting of, 373.
Whale. On the estimated power of the tail of a, 78.
What did they teach? Remarks on the doctrines of the early Friends, entitled. 225.
What my little boy taught me. Extract entitled, 148.
"What she could do." Anecdote of the willingness of an crippled woman, entitled, 413.
Wheeler Daniel. A reminiscence of, 227.
The religious care of, over his children, 255.
Whitfield George. Notice of the humble origin of, 357.
Where the money goes. Remarks on good housekeeping, entitled, 262.
"Wicked Jim." Account of the reclamation of, 243.
Wilson Martha A. Account of the late, 201. 209.
Wilson Thomas. Fruits of the powerful ministry of, 298.
Withy George. Extracts from an address of, to Friends 1822, 37.
Wood. Process for making hard, out of soft, 54.
On the preservation of, 94.
On the distillation of, at Cadosia, N. York, 142.
Increase of length of, by absorption of water, 270.
Wood oil. On the production and uses of, in Sweden, 54.
Wool. On the cause of the felting power of, 190.
Woolman John. Observations of, on silent worship, 52.
Woman came and cried unto him." "A, 205.
Women. Notice of the emigration of British, to California, 238.
Notice of the care of Association of, in Boston over young girls, 238.
The gifts of the Holy Spirit given to, equally with men, 308. 386.
Schools for, started by the Sultan of Turkey, 327.
Instances of the Divine call of, to the work of the ministry, 386.
The ordination of, as deacons, approved by Reformed Presbyterians, 407.
Wonderful escapes, 60.
Word of God. The, not the Scriptures, but Christ Jesus, 289.
Words. On the derivation of certain, 36.
World. On a redemption from the spirit of the, 307.
and the friendship of the world. Essay entitled, The, 371.
Work. On having a mind for, 319.
Worship. Remarks on the impropriety of unnecessary talking before and after meetings for, 29.
Observations of John Woolman on silent, 52.
Remark on taking young children to places of, 79.
On the doctrine of Friends in regard to, 106. 239. 253. 345.
Spiritual decay accompanies architectural display in houses for, 411.
On the misapplication of money in erecting costly houses for, 399.
Worldly conformity. Enforcement of rules in the church as well as preaching against, necessary, 367.

Year. Reflections on the close of the, 173. 175.
Yearly Meeting. Baltimore, 1887. Notice of proceedings of, 150.
Canada (smaller body), 1888. Notice of proceedings of, 399.
Dublin, 1888. Notice of the non-adoption of the "Richmond Declaration" by, 351.
Indiana, 1887. Notice of proceedings of, 95.
Iowa (smaller body), 1887. Minute of, respecting Hickory Grove Quarterly Meeting, &c., 207.
Iowa (larger body), 1887. Notice of proceedings of, 94.
Kansas (smaller body), 1887. Notice of proceedings of, 118.
Kansas (larger body), 1887. Notice of, 119.
London. On the steps taken to preserve a copy of the original record of births, deaths, &c., in, 178.
London, 1888. Notice of proceedings of, 383.
New York, 1887. Notice of a minute of, and comments, 15. 55.
New York, 1888. Notice of proceedings of, 367. Comments on above, 368.
New England. Remarks on the causes of the separation in, in 1845, 257.
New England (larger body), 1888. Notice of proceedings of, 399. 407. 415.
North Carolina, 1887. Notice of proceedings of, 45.
Ohio. In reference to the standing and concern of, 115.
On the acknowledgment of, by Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 151. 175. 257.
Ohio, 1823. Minute of advice of, to its members, 66.
1887. Notice of the proceedings of, 79. 106.
Philadelphia. On the character and position of, 50. 58.
Comments on the above, 55.
Brief narrative in relation to the position of, and comments, 233. 241. 249. 257. 265. 273.
Remarks on the approach of, 295.
1888. Notice of the proceedings of, 303. 311.
Comments on the concern of, for its members, 319.

Yearly Meeting. Remarks in reference to the committee appointed by, to visit its subordinate meetings, &c., 356.
Western (smaller body), 1887. Notice of proceedings of, 94.
Western (larger body), 1887. Notice of proceedings of, 94.

Yearly Meeting Conference at Richmond, Indiana. Remarks on the, 30. 47. 55. 95. 111. 183. 192. 225. 245. 351. 359. 367. 383. 407.

Young men. Advice to, in regard to business, marriage and religion, 155.

Youth. Christian advices of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting to, 277.
Young Rebecca. Letter of, 131.

Zeal. On, without knowledge, 319.
On true and false, 323.

XUM